

Top-tier education and training services

Attracting and retaining employees is critical to an organization's success. In a national survey of more than 400 employees from three generations, Baby Boomers, Generation X and Millennials, 70% said that training and development opportunities influenced their decision to stay at their job.¹

eMbrace training programs and resources are developed by Magellan Healthcare's in-house team of training professionals and clinical experts. Our robust catalog covers topics like leadership, workplace success, emotional wellbeing, healthy living and family dynamics. Training professionals in our national network are selected for their solid understanding of workplace dynamics and personal wellbeing and their proven success as presenters and facilitators.
